ASK INCREASE IN COLLEGE FUNDS

Nobody's Business

By Julian Capers Jr.

Austin, April 1.—A lobbyist's paradise has been created in Austin by the dilatory tactics adopted by the Texas senate, obviously to retaliate against Gov. Allred's barbs he threw during the summer's campaigns, many of which lodged under certain editorial skins.

With only a month of the 120-day session left, the senate has more than 250 bills on its calendar, many unimportant, but some extremely important. Besides these, there is a steady flow from the house and from the senate committee of additional legislation.

Working at the rate it has during the first three-fourth of the session, the senate can not possibly act on half these bills.

Many of those coming up from the house are vitally important—for instance the appropriation measure, only one of which has passed the senate. By a strange coincidence among the bills yet to come before the senate are included the public utility bill, the gas track repeal bill, the gas reservation bill, and the common carrier pipeline bill—measures which form the heart of the governor's legislative program.

The gas track bill is on the senate's calendar, but near the bottom of the list, with little prospect of getting a final hearing before adjournment. Strange enough, this bill and the public utilities measure are the ones the governor has most actively urged.

The legislature is undefeatable. A governor can accomplish much without the aid of a majority of members. The senate, apparently, is successfully avenging a real or fancied slight. The governor may have put upon it, when he called attention of the members to the reluctance of members of the august body to dispose how they make their living.

The senate's spiteful attitude is costing the people of Texas thousands of dollars, and many additional thousands must be spent for special sessions to enact measure that can not wait for another regular session.

This situation is made to order by lobbyists. Their business is to lobby legislation. The easiest way to do that is to let bills die on the calendar or never let them get out of committee. With the senate's legislative machinery bogged by petty politics, the lobbyists all say a little prayer, thanking every night for the political system that, whatever its advantages is neither efficient nor inexpensive, and provides long-suffering taxpayers to pay the bills.

Texas will have an intense interest in the working out of the national administration's strategic (Continued On Page 5)

CECIL COOK IS KILLED SUNDAY IN PLANE CRASH

De Leon Youth Burned to Death When His Ship Fell In Pasture Near Brownwood

Cecil Cook, 19, De Leon youth, was burned to death Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock when the airplane he was piloting crashed in a field owned by A. D. Murphy in the Woodland Heights section, two miles south of Brownwood, according to The Bulletin. Those immediately at the scene of the accident state that he was alive when the plane struck ground.

According to B. Kilgore, special officer who lives only a short distance from the scene the plane evidently had been having trouble before the crash. Cook fell from low altitude, and immediately upon the plane striking the ground it burst into flames.

Kilgore said the aviator apparently had planned a forced landing only a few moments before the crash as Cook seemed to be attempting a landing place. The plane then gained speed and the pilot climbed higher then again (Continued On Page Five)

FOUR CITY OFFICIALS ARE CHOSEN

ALDERMAN NOW MUST BE CHOSEN TO FILL VACANCY

Hoff Chosen Mayor; Huddleston Re-Elected City Secretary and Denny and Lacy Aldermen

In one of the quietest pre-election periods in the history of Comanche in which practically no electioneering was done except for the office of City Secretary, a comparatively heavy vote was cast in the City Election to fill four contested offices. John F. Hoff was elected Mayor, Hill Huddleston, re-elected City Secretary, and Charlie Denny re-elected Alderman and H. R. Lacy was chosen as a new Alderman. J. W. Cunningham was re-elected Marshall and P. D. Parker, City Attorney, both with no opposition.

A total of 584 votes were cast as compared to 555 last year and 555 the preceding year. The record vote for the City was in 1931 when a total of 652 votes were polled.

The vote Tuesday was: For Mayor, Hoff, 304; W. H. Carpenter, 274; For City Secretary, Huddleston, 319; N. A. Palmer, 97; Mrs. Mary L. Smith, 93, and R. B. Waldrop 71.

With two aldermen to be elected, the vote was C. F. Denny, 385; H. R. Lacy, 332, and Bernard Riley 317.

Hoff is now a member of the City Council, having been elected a year ago when he led the ticket with 502 votes. He is the son of the late J. P. Hoff, former Comanche Mayor, and Mrs. J. P. Hoff of Comanche. After graduating from Comanche High School he attended the University of Texas and received two degrees, graduating with honors.

After the death of his father three years ago, Hoff returned to Comanche to take his father's place as manager of the Comanche Milling Company which position he still holds. He is a Past President of the Comanche Lions Club and will be the youngest Mayor Comanche has ever had.

Special Election Is Due

A Special City Election to choose an Alderman will be held at an early date, according to Hill Huddleston, Secretary, to fill the vacancy left by Hoff.

According to the City Charter vacancies in the Mayor's office and that of the Aldermen must be filled by a special election Huddleston said.

Only a ten days notice will be required for the election, he explained.

Mrs. G. Allen Lee, Census Enumerator reports that 670 scholastics have already been enumerated this year as compared to 623 last year. Barrett said that there were more yet to be enrolled and that the total would likely reach 685 at the least.

Barrett says the enumeration is the largest since he became superintendent ten years ago.

Is Charged With the Theft of Forty Bushels of Peanuts

Weldon Byrd was arrested Monday morning shortly after midnight in the Victor community by Sheriff John Reese and Deputy W. A. Pate on a burglary charge and was brought to Comanche where he is being held to await the action of the grand jury pending his execution of a $1000 bond.

LOCAL BREEDER DISPLAYS BULLS

First Bulls of Strain Ever To Be Offered For Sale Locally

Two bulls, Double Domino Herefords, were exhibited in Comanche Saturday and Monday by J. B. Allcorn, local breeder, who is offering the two for sale.

The two bulls, both of which will be 14 months old the 10th of this month weigh 1940 pounds and were raised on Allcorn's ranch south of Comanche.

These two bulls, Allcorn said are direct descendants of Lady Wilton, world champion, and the W.H.R. Goode bull of Cheyenne, Wyoming.

Allcorn now has 40 head of registered Herefords on his ranch and these are the first of the breed to be offered for sale in this section. In October, 1933, Allcorn purchased 19 cows and a bull from Ed Hayden of Moran, Shackleford County, and his stock are all from the original herd.

Allcorn has been interested in better beef cattle for Comanche County for several years and his herd is taken as proof that finer cattle for market and show purposes can not be raised in any other section.

T. M. EDWARDS BURIED SUNDAY AT WHITE POINT

Pioneer Settler of Comanche County Died Saturday Following Stroke

Thomas M. Edwards, known to most of his friends as "Uncle Tom" and one of the most widely known men in Comanche County, passed away at an early hour Saturday morning at his home here following an illness since the preceding afternoon when he suffered a stroke of paralysis.

According to members of the family, Mr. Edwards worked at his place of business Friday morning and returned home for lunch and became ill after his return to work that afternoon.

Funeral services were held at the White Point church Sunday afternoon with Rev. B. W. Kramer, assisted by Rev. M. S. Leveridge, officiating. Interment was in the White Point Cemetery.

The more than a thousand persons who attended the funeral indicates the high esteem in which the deceased was held.

Pallbearers were his nephews, John, Henry, and Charley Edwards, Ed, Roddy, Calvin and Leonard McKenzie and Zim Rogers. Honorary pallbearers were George Plack, E. E. Denny, Hugh Lacy, E. M. Eanes, Henry White, J. P. Lee, E. H. Jones and Sam Switzer. Misses Alice Hayes and Claudia Fisher were in charge of the flowers.

LAWS PROVIDE SUCH ACTION HE SAYS IN RECORD

Tells People of Washington to Move If Not Satisfied; Laws Provide Action

Representative Tom Blanton, in Washington last week told citizens of the nation's capital—through the Congressional Record—that while they may dislike for representatives to run the town, "we are going to do it whether they like it or not."

That was the postscript to a stormy session before a house District of Columbia crime committee over what was represented as a "gentleman's agreement" between Blanton and Major Ernest W. Brown, superintendent of Washington police, to make Inspector Albert J. Headley assistant superintendent of police upon the retirement of Thaddeus R. Bean. Congressman Blanton termed this a "trivial" matter in a speech later to the house.

The ruckus started when Bean recently testified to the committee that the "deal" was for him to be pushed out so Headley, Blanton's friend could get the better job. Bean contended Blanton had given him until April 1 to retire. Blanton previously had presented the committee with letters he exchanged with Brown from Abilene, Texas. He said in a statement in the Congressional Record that "not one word did Bean say about who helped him get appointed; he tried to hit his (Continued on Page 5)

WORK BEGUN TO SECURE STATION IN THIS COUNTY

Speakers Say Reduced Allotment Would Prohibit the Work of Extension Service Here

Representatives from every section of Comanche County adopted a resolution at a meeting here Saturday opposing the proposal to reduce the A. & M. College appropriation 38 per cent. The group, members of Comanche County Agricultural Association ask an increased appropriation for A. & M. and sent resolutions to the Senate and public appropriation committees.

J. A. Barton, County Agent, presided with several speakers, including vocational agriculture instructors addressing the group.

Work has been started to secure a sandy land experiment station in either Brown, Comanche, Callahan or Eastland Counties, and the local association is asking that the station be located in Comanche County to carry on dry land farm experiments.

Speakers at the meeting stressed the point that if the proposal to cut the A. & M. fund 38 per cent is carried out, then the benefits that Comanche County as well as other sections receive through the college Extension Service will be denied.

Much aid is given farmers in this section through the efforts of the Extension Service and Mr. Barton pointed out that much work has been done in Comanche County in the past through that department.

Committees of both the Senate and House in Austin Tuesday reported favorably a bill to establish an agricultural experiment station in the sandy land cross timbers belt of this section. The bill is now on the calendars of both houses and sponsors expect it to be passed this session in spite of the crowded condition of the calendars.

At the hearing an amendment was added to include Erath County among the counties in which the station might be located.

Callahan, Eastland and Brown Counties had representatives at Austin for the hearing Tuesday and these counties are anxious to secure location of the station.

The local organization will meet here, at the Chamber of Commerce office, First National Bank Building, the last Saturday afternoon in each month to discuss problems relative to the interests of agriculture in this section.

Howe Messenger In Editorial On Morris Sheppard

Following is a copy of an editorial appearing recently in The Howe Messenger, commenting on a letter from Senator Morris Sheppard:

"A letter from Senator Morris Sheppard indicates that he will forsake the interests of his constituents to support a bill asked for by President Roosevelt. He gives no other reason for his action."

"We have a Constitution—though not apparent—providing for legislative, executive and judicial departments, which are to check undue assumption of power by any one department. If our 96 senators and 435 representatives are all like Senator Sheppard, that system is destroyed and we are throwing away $10,000 a year on each of them. This represents the tidy sum of $5,310,000 annually, and that's considerable pocket change even in these billion dollar days."

for Texas Ladies a New Day was Created

MY DEAR! YOU LOOK YEARS YOUNGER—WHAT HAVE YOU BEEN DOING

THIS NEW DAY came as a gift to Texas Ladies . . . a gift of leisure . . . a release from drudgery. It came with transmission line electric service which blazed the way to freedom from ancient household tasks. It erased the lines of toil and care from faces that, all too soon, were showing the ravages of unkind years.

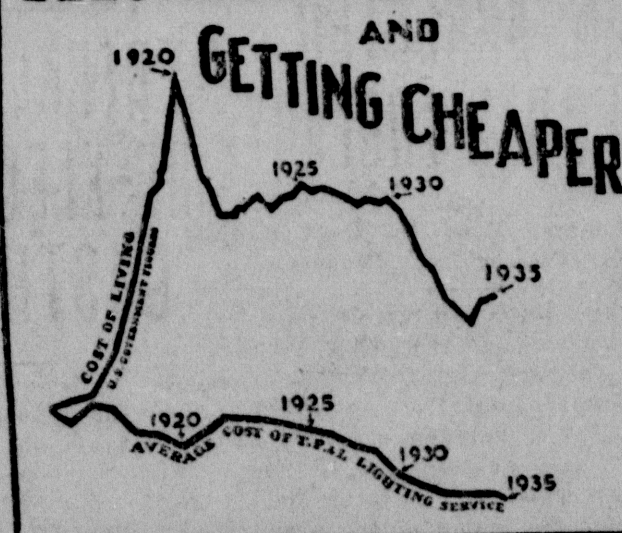

It transformed homes. It gave them light and color and charm. It made them new. It made them modern. So that visitors who had seen them in their years of indifference exclaimed at their beauty and fitness. So that families enjoyed life in them as they had not known it before.

Transmission line electric service . . . produced and distributed by the Texas Power & Light Company for the first time in Texas . . . created this New Day for Texas Ladies of more than 300 Texas communities. One hundred and ninety-seven of these communities had no electric service until this Company extended its transmission lines to serve them.

Because of the initiative of this Company this New Deal was brought years ago when it was needed most . . . and to those whom it would serve best! And as an indication of its desire and ability properly to serve the people, this Company has voluntarily reduced its lighting rates more than 35% during the past 10 years. No other commodity serves the people so well. No other cost of living has shown a like reduction during this same period. A New Day for Texas Ladies . . . at lower cost.

This chart shows that electricity is cheaper to our customers today . . . in spite of the fact that the cost of living is rising sharply. This Company will make it still cheaper . . . voluntarily . . . just as rapidly as good business will permit further reductions.

"Now I'm the Picture of Health," Says Lady After Taking CARDUI

Here is how Cardui helped an Alabama lady. . . . "I suffered from pains in my back and sides," writes Mrs. A. O. Gray, of Cusseta, Ala. "I was so thin and weak, I read of Cardui and decided to take it. I noticed at once it was helping me. I kept taking Cardui until I had finished five bottles. I gained. My health was much better. Now I am the picture of health. My color is good and my weight increased." . . . Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician.

To the Citizens of Comanche

We would be ungrateful indeed, if we did not want to thank you for your support and influence given us in the recent City Election. None of you will ever know just how much it meant to us, and we certainly want to thank ever one that voted for me.

Your vote Tuesday is taken as a vote of confidence, and I assure you that I will do all in my power to see that none of you shall ever have occasion to regret it. To those who voted for my opponents, I know that lots of you are among my very best friends, and I can assure you that we appreciate you, and shall always remember you as being so nice to us, and now that the election is over, let us all work toward making this the best town possible to live in.

Thanking every one of you for your support and kind words of cheer, we are,

Respectfully,
THE HUDDLESTONS.

FORD Strikes a new note in INTERIOR DESIGN-

THE MODERN MOTIF—Red and black accentuate the instruments, making them easier to see. Control knobs and cigarette lighter are ivory colored plastic. Center striping is chromium. Convenient glove compartment. Everything is designed to be useful, first—functional beauty inevitably follows.

EXPERTS in color design are enthusiastic about the new Ford Deluxe interiors. They have "spotted" immediately a new note in interior design—the subtle use of taupe grey as a background for feminine costumes.

Window moldings, door handles, the instrument panel and even the beautiful, slim steering wheel, are all finished in blended greys. This color scheme cannot possibly clash with even the most brilliant ensemble. On the contrary, it will accentuate it.

And the upholstery! . . . Here beauty is coupled with long-wearing quality characteristic of custom-built cars. In all Ford Deluxe closed cars you have your choice of two materials at no extra cost. Mohair or soft, pin-stripe Broadcloth in Sedans and Coupes. Bedford Cord or one hundred percent Wool Suede in Touring Sedans. See the stylish, new Ford interiors at your nearest Ford Dealer's today.

SAYS CROWDS AT
SENATE SESSIONS

The U. S. Senate

Ordinarily, a visitor to Washington, D. C. has no trouble in getting a look at the United States Senate in action. During the sessions, the galleries are always half empty, unless a piece of legislation of exceptional importance is in debate, and the few visitors present often find themselves overcome by boredom within a short time.Matters are very different now.
If you want to attend the Senate, you have to go early in the morning and wait. By the time roll-call is announced, the galleries are jammed and hundreds of disappointed people must be turned away by the doorkeepers.This change isn't due to a rising interest on the part of the citizens in serious questions of government. Nor is it due to Sentorial achievement, which might automatically bring in admiring thousands who want to watch their elected officials keep the wheels of government moving.
It is due, instead, to the fact that the present session has turned itself into a first-class road show, admission free. Variously called the "greatest deliberative body" and the "most exclusive men's club" in the world, the Senate has temporarily, in the words of one Washington correspondent, "degenerated into a show, a circus, a brawl."

Business Shows Increase

Business is definitely better now than at this time last year.
Practically every industry is increasing sales, earning moderately higher profits. Complete figures for January show that the index of industrial production was at the highest January level since 1929.The fact remains, however, that in the view of many competent observers, fundamental conditions are unchanged, and all that is keeping us going is government spending.It is true that 10,000,000 men are out of work, are being supported by relief—about the same number that was unemployed two years ago, when the great recovery drive started. That is the most ominous fact the country faces now.

The Reckless Pedestrian

Last year the automobile fatality record touched an all-time high, with a total of 36,000 killed.
One of the worst aspects of the record was the pedestrian toll.Those who believe that accident involving a car and a pedestrian are always the fault of the motorist, are sadly mistaken.
In five out of every eight accidents in which a person on foot was killed by a car, the pedestrian was entirely to blame.Thirty-four per cent of the pedestrians who were killed because of their own carelessness, were struck while crossing in the middle of the block or against traffic signals. Seventeen per cent were killed while walking on the wrong side of the road. Eleven per cent of the pedestrian fatalities involved children playing in the streets. Nine per cent of the fatalities resulted from walkers stepping suddenly out from behind parked cars into the stream of traffic.

Fire Is Never A Tea Party

According to a news report from New York City, firemen there recently attended a $75,000 tea party.They responded to an early morning alarm and found flames engulfing a five-story warehouse stocked with tea. With characteristic skill, they attacked the fire, using several hose streams.
As the water heated in the flames and filtered down through the packages, a fine brew of tea ran out into the gutter.Firemen will tell you, however, that there never was a fire that could be considered a "tea party." Fire brings hard work, danger—death.The National Board of Fire Underwriters reports that thousands of people lose their lives in fires annually, while the property loss runs into hundreds of millions of dollars.This loss directly concerns everyone—fire may strike anywhere without warning, unless proper precautions are taken.
Check over your property today.
Look for fire hazards in connection with the chimney, the furnace or stove, the heating pipes, hot ashes, rubbish and papers, paint or oil-soaked rags, and electric wiring and appliances.Check up on careless habits that invite fire—especially in connection with matches and smoking materials. Train children to be careful. Substitute safe habits for your old careless ones.Mrs. Weldon Webb and children of Ranger spent the week end here with her mother, Mrs.
D. C. Bailey.Mrs. O. A. Kinney and son, George Roy of Stamford are visiting Mrs. Kinney's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Clark.

Summer School Dates Are Set For State University

Plans are being made for the 1935 summer session of The Uni-gin July 16 and end August 23.

The fee for each six-weeks term vidual students registered for the two summer terms. The University of Texas ranked second last year in point of summer school enrollment in the United States last year; Columbia University holding first position in that respect.

MORE ABOUT NOBODY'S BUSINESS (Continued From First Page)

battle to hamstring Huey Long, the Louisiana Kingfish, because Dan Moody, the brilliant ex-governor who fought corruption in his own state militantly and successfully, is the prosecutor and one of the chief actors in the Louisiana drama. The Washington strategists have outlined a plan of prosecuting the lieutenants of Long for income tax evasion.
Their plan is to show, by successful prosecution of Long's underlings, the nest of corruption which they claim surrounds the Kingfish's political machine in Louisiana. This strategy, they believe, if successful, will prevent the Kingfish adopting the role of martyr, which he might shrewdly do, if the government should attempt to make an income tax case against him at this stage.
But if successful prosecutions of his underlings are had first, the federal strategists believe conditions in Louisiana would be so thoroughly aired in court by witnesses under oath that the Kingfish would have difficulty beclouding the situation by a pose of martyrdom.

Many able Democratic prosecutors were available for the Louisiana cleanup, but all were from northern states. Texans in high places at Washington pointed out that a "Yankee prosecutor" sent to Louisiana would be at a disadvantage. So Moody, militant, red-headed and with a reputation already established in a neighboring state as a foe of corruption in public office, was chosen.
Wright Matthews, of the Washington internal revenue department—who dug up the evidence in the Louisiana income tax cases, gills from Palestine, and worked six years for Gov. Moody's law partner. He probably had a lot to do with Moody's selection, as did Vice President Garner, Jesse Jones, Rep. Sam Rayburn and Rep. Buchanan, of Moody's home district.

Gov. Jimmie Allred will make his first extended visit outside the state since his election on April 25, when he rides as a passenger upon the Texas Press Association's "Centennial Special" train, touring the south and visiting Washington. That is understood to be the program unless the legislative situation is such that the governor can not leave.
In that event, it is likely that Mrs. Allred, the charming first lady of Texas, will represent the governor aboard the Centennial Special, which will bear the official invitation to the president, vice president, cabinet and the congress to visit Texas in 1936.

MORE ABOUT CECIL COOK (Continued From First Page)

begin to sink toward the ground.
It is believed that upon attempting a forced landing Cook lost flying speed which caused the plane to fall. It hit flat in what pilots call a pancake landing. The noise of the crash was heard for several blocks.

Three small boys reached the burning plane before Kilgore and reported that Cook was trying to get out of the cockpit when they arrived. However, Kilgore said the plane was a mass of flames when he arrived and that about that time the gas tank exploded.

The charred body was removed from the wreckage as soon as the tail could be dragged around to blow the flames away from the blazing cockpit. The body was taken to the Mitchell Funeral Home, and later was taken to the family home at De Leon.

Cook, the Bulletin said, was well known in Brownwood having been an employee in the Chas. Day garage for several years. He left Brownwood about six months ago to return to De Leon. While working for Day he began studying flying and had been doing solo flying since last fall.

Two years ago he suffered bad burns at the Day garage while working on a plane and was confined in a Brownwood hospital for more than a month.

Cook married only about one month ago and is survived by his wife and parents, all of De Leon. Funeral services were held there Monday afternoon.

The plane, an old army training model, was completely demolished. The fabric part of the wings and fuselage was completely destroyed, the motor buried itself in the ground and the metal part of the framework twisted and burned with only a few bits of charred wood remaining of the wood part of the construction.

Cook's clothing was burned from his body with the exception of a small portion of his trousers and shirt around his waist. There was a small amount of change and a watch in his pocket. The watch was running when the body was dragged from the burning plane by Mr. Kilgore.

Cook was well known in Comanche, and was a member of the De Leon Band and a former De Leon High School athlete.

what is now the Harmony com-before the organization of the county and when Indians were still common in this section. He was the son of A. B. and Jane Gore Edwards. His father died when he was only two or three years of age and his mother about fifty years ago. He was the last survivor of a family of five children, his brothers, Bill and Jim Edwards and his sisters, Mesdames Charles and Kin Mc-Kenzie, having preceded him in death.

In 1883 Mr. Edwards was married to Margaret Rogers who survives him, they having celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary two years ago.

Soon after their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Edwards bought a home in the Harmony community which they owned at the time of his death. There they made their home for more than thirty five years and were active in church and community affairs. Mr. Edwards was a member of the Methodist Church at Harmony for more than fifty years during much of which time he was a member of the Board of Stewards. He retained his membership there until his death.

About fifteen years ago Mr. and Mrs. Edwards moved to Comanche when he received an appointment as Deputy Sheriff under the late Lewis Marshall. After his term of office expired, Mr. Edwards opened the Edwards Feed and Produce Company with his son, Clarence, and their various interests were connected in all sections of Comanche County.

In addition to his widow, Mr.
Edwards is survived by the following children: Jim Edwards, Mrs. Clarence Albin, Doc Edwards, Zett Edwards and Clarence Edwards, all of whom live in the county.

"I contend," the Texan added,
"it is very evident from the foregoing that the front-page-box-car headlines in all the Washington newspapers is just another attempt on their part to hit me under the belt because I will not obey their orders." I have a right to do everything in my power to help get first-class officials in office in Washington.
I have done it in the past and I am going to do it in the future. I have endorsed many persons for jobs. Some have been successful, others have not. Certainly all Washington people dislike for representatives of the people in congress to run the affairs of Washington, but we are going to do it whether they like it or not. The constitution and laws of the United States make Washington the seat of the government and required congress to make its laws and run things here. And if Washington people do not like it, let them move.
Most of the Washington people have gotten rich off the people in the 48 states. These newspapers may just as well understand now, as later, that they cannot run congress."

Gardner's Pupils At John Tarleton Gain Recognition

Work done by three students of architecture at John Tarleton College has received awards in the fourth analytic Beaux Arts competition, according to an announcement from James E. Gardner, professor of architecture.

Awards received by Tarleton students of architectural design are as follows: mention, Robert Reinheimer, Jr., Stephenville; half mention, Doyle E. Miller, Cleburne, and Mariana Lanford, Stephenville. The design for the analytiques was an exedra.

These students competed against the large architectural schools of the country, such as Yale, M. T. T., Penn State, and others. Texas A. & M. and John Tarleton Agricultural College are the only schools in Texas who enter their students in Beaux-Arts competition.

The drawings are anonymously judged by a jury drawn from leaders in the profession in the East, and the strict character of their judgment is evidenced by the low percentage of awards given, usually less than fifty percent receive an award. To have work done by Tarleton students win in a long range and strict competition, like the Beaux-Arts competition, is very gratifying both to the students competing and to those who are interested in making Tarleton a recognized school of architecture in Texas and the Nation.

Professor Gardner formerly lived in Comanche. He is the son of Rev. and Mrs. N. E. Gardner of Comanche.

WEAK AND SKINNY MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN

Saved by new Vitamins of Cod Liver Oil in tasteless tablets.

Friends of firm healthy bones! New vigor, vim and energy instead of tired listlessness! Steady, quiet nerves! That is what thousands of people are getting through scientific latest discovery—the Vitamins of Cod Liver Oil concentrated in little orange coated tablets without any of its horrid, fishy taste or smell. McGee's Cod Liver Oil Tablets, they're called! "Cod Liver Oil in Tablets", and they simply work wonders. A little boy of 8, certainly sick, got well and gained 10½ lbs. in just one month. A girl of thirteen after the same disease, gained 8 lbs. the first week and 8 lbs. each week after. A young mother who could not get or sleep after baby came got all her health back and gained 10 lbs. in less than a month.

Yes, meet McGee's at once. Remember if you don't gain at least 5 lbs. of new healthy flesh in a month get your money back. Demand McGee's—the original and genuine Cod Liver Oil Tablets—approved by Good Housekeeping Institute. Refuse all substitutes. McGee's are the only better.

THE BACKBONE OF COMANCHE COUNTY

The title for this article has been selected only after the subject had been given much thought and consideration. It was our desire that the title should be significant of the basic value of the community; that it should be descriptive of the real commercial strength and life of the community; that in brief it should be a story, sufficient in itself, requiring no elaboration. The word BACKBONE is used advisedly. If you study it carefully you will agree that it has a wealth of meaning and we feel justified in using it in its most liberal sense for it is our conviction that these men of whom we write are the real BACKBONE OF COMANCHE COUNTY.

The various stores, the banks, garages and other industries included in these columns, embrace places of distribution of nearly all of life's necessities and many of its luxuries and their importance to the civic and industrial welfare of Comanche County cannot be overestimated. All of these firms are owned and controlled by men who have the welfare and interests to this community deeply imbedded in their hearts. All of them are competent and capable business men who have by their combined and individual efforts given this section, business places that are second to none in the STATE, for the quality of merchandise sold, the service rendered and the careful courteous treatment of its patrons. The writer has no hesitancy in making these assertions. These business houses require no exaggerated truths. They are sufficiently good without them.

Men and places of this kind have placed the name of COMANCHE COUNTY upon a high plane, a lofty pinnacle of moral and industrial standing and as long as men of this type elect to transact business here just so long will this section maintain that enviable position.

—J. E. ROBBINS

Holding Company Bill Is Discussed In News Editorial

Following is a copy of an editorial recently appearing in The Dallas Morning News, discussing the Holding Company Bill.

There is much constructive legislation in the proposed act which would place the utility holding companies under strict regulation, but the measure is also open to serious criticism. Holding companies should be placed under drastic control but they should not be liquidated completely. While the Rayburn bill is reported as an administration measure, President Roosevelt within the last year has gone on record as recognizing the serviceableness of the holding companies under proper regulation. The present attempt to wipe them out is part of the overzealousness of the reformers.

In destroying the holding company, the Government lays itself open to criticism that is now justly directed at the past managers of many holding companies. It would destroy values held by honest investors by unnecessary deflation just as past manipulation has robbed investors through unreasonable inflation. The proposed law is further open to criticism because it is aimed only at certain classes of holding companies, and even in these classes leaves with a Federal commission to authority to perpetuate existence. The passage of the act would result in much uncertainty. As a piece of legislation it looks half-baked on one side and scorched on the other, though it has, like the British barrel of beer, some excellent content between. An act to regulate the holding companies should pass the present session of Congress, but the pending measure should be amended materially before it becomes law.

POWER HEAD IS

UTILITY PLAN

John W. Carpenter, Texas Civic and Business Leader Appears Before Committee

Washington, D. C., March 31.—A former farm boy from near Corsicana, now president and general manager of the Texas Power & Light Company, appeared before the important House Interstate Commerce Committee in the interests of his company and its thousands of security owners scattered throughout Texas.

The man was John W. Carpenter, utility, business and civic leader of Texas. He had come to Washington to plead for the defeat of the "Public Utility Act of 1935." Mr. Carpenter brought out that this bill would endanger the investments of his many thousands of security owners and would impair the service and retard the future development of electricity in Texas. He also stated it would abolish the holding company which has meant so much to his company in making possible the furnishing of electricity at reasonable rates and in bringing 24-hour "big city" electric service to the cross-roads of his native State.

"The elimination of the holding company is only one of the unfair and dangerous features of this proposed legislation," he said. "This bill would centralize in Washington regulatory authority of local utilities and would force this company to go forward under impossible handicaps at great loss to its investors and to the detriment of the territory which we serve."

"My appeal to you against centralized regulatory authority is not based upon theory but upon an understanding of such matters over many years of practical experience," Mr. Carpenter said as he proceeded to tell of his start as a farm boy, how he went to work for the small plant at Corsicana and how he rose by steps until he headed the Texas Power & Light Company.

"I know of the early troubles of the isolated plant, the difficulties of finance, how we were handicapped because we could not obtain proper engineering service and advice," Mr. Carpenter told the committee. "I know of the trials and tribulations of J. F. Strickland and associates in their attempts to develop electricity in this State, especially in their attempt to deliver electric services to small towns and rural territory. Mr. Strickland went to St. Louis which was then the financial center of the Southwest. He failed to obtain necessary help so he went to New York and, after several weeks, made contact with the American Power & Light Company and the Electric Bond and Share Company. Elated, he returned to Texas and told his story to State authorities who not only gave him permission to organize the Texas Power & Light Company but encouraged him to keep hold of his new eastern connections for the development of electricity in Texas."

Mr. Carpenter brought out that this connection with the American Power & Light Company and the Electric Bond and Share Company was the beginning of an electrical era in Texas.

"Because of the holding company aid of the American Power & Light Company and the Electric Bond and Share Company our company was enabled to build electric transmission lines to scores of towns and villages, many of which would be without electric service today but for the company's strong financial connections," said Mr. Carpenter. "Over a hundred and seventy of the towns we now serve did not have electric service before we became associated with our holding company."

"Rates have been lowered in every town we serve and the service has constantly been improved until it is second to none in the entire country. For example, Corsicana where I started in the electrical business now has rates 30 to 40 per cent lower than they were before the town was connected to our company's transmission lines."

Mr. Carpenter brought out to the committee that he recently received a letter from the mayor of Corsicana which lauded the company's electric service and which protested the attack now being made on electric holding companies and operating companies.

"Our companies have nearly trebled from 1917 to 1934," said Mr. Carpenter. "Our expansion program under our holding company is well brought out by the fact that in 1917 we had 1,693 miles of transmission and distribution lines while today we have nearly 6,500 miles of transmission and distribution lines."

Mr. Carpenter presented the part his company played in stimulating the development of new industries in Texas and of their cooperation in aiding industries already located in the State. He showed how the transmission lines of his company brought big-city industrial service to the cross-roads cotton gin. He told of the high rates that were in effect prior to his company's connection with the American Power & Light Company and the Electric Bond and Share Company and he contrasted this with the reduction in rates made possible by power plant efficiency, financial assistance and engineering aid furnished by their holding and service management companies.

"As Texas develops in the future, electric service must keep abreast," Mr. Carpenter said. "We must build additional transmission and distribution lines; we must enlarge our power plant facilities. All of this calls for new money, constant and alert engineering advice and research. We can only receive this through maintaining our present connections with the holding and management service companies."

"The American Power & Light Company and the Electric Bond and Share Company have been behind us and have piloted us successfully nearly a quarter of a century, and I look with great apprehension on any measure that will impair that relationship."

Mr. Carpenter brought out that Texas is still a new country and that capital available in the Southwest for investment in his business is but a "drop in the bucket." He said that his company needs now and will continue to need all the constructive assistance of its holding company in procuring from the financial centers outside capital that will be very essential to the development of electric service in Texas in the future. In this connection he brought out that his company has made substantial investments for serving agriculture and the mineral industries and that additional investments to serve these industries will be necessary in the future.

"The widespread damage which this proposed legislation would cause to my company and my State, as well as to the investors in the Texas Power & Light Company securities, thousands of whom are small investors, and many of them dependent on the dividends for their living or old age security, leads me to recommend against the enactment of this bill," Mr. Carpenter said in conclusion. "This legislation cannot help but destroy property values, seriously prolong the depression and impair business generally along all lines."

STATE HEALTH
DEPT. WARNINGDr. John W. Brown Gives Facts About Typhoid and Diphtheria

A warning against the hitchhiking germ of typhoid fever has just been issued by Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer. They must catch a ride from an infected person to the well person; this is generally accomplished by water, milk, flies, fingers, or food. Every case is contracted by way of the mouth and digestive system.

A carrier is a person who has had typhoid fever at some time and who even after recovery carries the germs of the disease in the urine and discharge of the bowels. Carriers who are careless in their personal habits are likely to infect any food they handle with unwashed hands. Some of the most serious and far-reaching outbreaks of the disease have been caused by drinking milk or eating foods that have been handled by carriers. Persons may be carriers without knowing it.

Typhoid fever is unnecessary and preventable. Every case is due either to community negligence or to the ignorance or carelessness of some individual. Persons planning a vacation or trip where sanitation may not be rigidly enforced should protect themselves against this disease by being vaccinated. Three inoculations with typhoid vaccine, a week apart, are all that is necessary to secure protection against this disease for two years. The purity of water, milk, or food cannot be judged by looking at it so the best thing to do is to play safe and have your physician protect you.

Diphtheria Is Discussed

Few conquests of science have been so spectacular and complete as the rout of diphtheria. And this victory has most firmly established the value of serum treatment both in its preventive and curative phases. However, toxin-antitoxin or its successor toxoid for immunization, and antitoxin for timely cure, are brilliant achievements of which the general public even yet are not fully aware," states Dr. Brown.

"As indicated, toxoid is the immunizing or preventive agent now usually employed. Only one injection of this serum is necessary. However, three to four months are required for the body to develop immunity. At that time the Schick test is applied to determine the results of this preventive treatment. This harmless and painless procedure is performed by injecting into the upper layers of the skin a minute drop of the diphtheria toxin. If within 48 to 72 hours there is no redness at the place where the toxin was injected, or perhaps a small blister and some hardness of the skin, immunity has been definitely established.

"However, when a case of diphtheria exists antitoxin is the only treatment that will save life. Also, to be effective, it must be given early and in large doses. Delay is usually caused by parents failing to realize that any sore throat may actually be diphtheria."

"The means are at hand to fight diphtheria to the death, but it cannot be done without a hundred per cent cooperation of parents. May Day, the Child's Health Day, will soon be here and one of the best ways to observe it would be for parents to have their children immunized against diphtheria."
